

Let's Build a Snowman

CHRISTMAS AD LIBS WORD GAME

One December morning during Christmas break, Bill and his little sister Jill woke up to _____ feet of snow outside. Feeling _____, they each put on their number adjective

warmest _____ and went outside.
article of clothing

“Let’s have a _____ snowball fight with the kids next door!” said Bill adjective
_____.
adverb

“Naw, those kids are too _____,” said Jill. “We’re just going to end up breaking
adjective
a _____ and getting in trouble.”
noun

“Hey, I know,” said Bill in a _____ voice. “Let’s build the most _____ adjective adjective snowman ever!”

Jill _____ agreed and they quickly gathered all the supplies they would need.
adverb
For the snowman’s arms, Bill inserted two _____. For his eyes, Jill used some plural noun
_____ they found lying around the house. They dressed him up with an old plural noun
_____ they found in their dad’s closet. And finally, for his _____,

they used a _____. vegetable

_____ hours after they started, they finally finished their creation and invited their number
mom to come and see.

“Wow,” said their mom, “that is the most _____ snowman I have ever seen.
adjective
Next time maybe you could try making a snow _____!”
