

I symbolize love, or so it is said.
You might get a smooch if I'm above your head. What am I?

From when the snow first falls until winter ends, I'll be there if you want to make a friend. What am I?

Without me and his reindeer, St.
Nick couldn't get around. I'm how his Christmas deliveries get off the ground. What am I?

My appearance is lovely. My shape is round. I come to life when turned upside-down. What
am I?

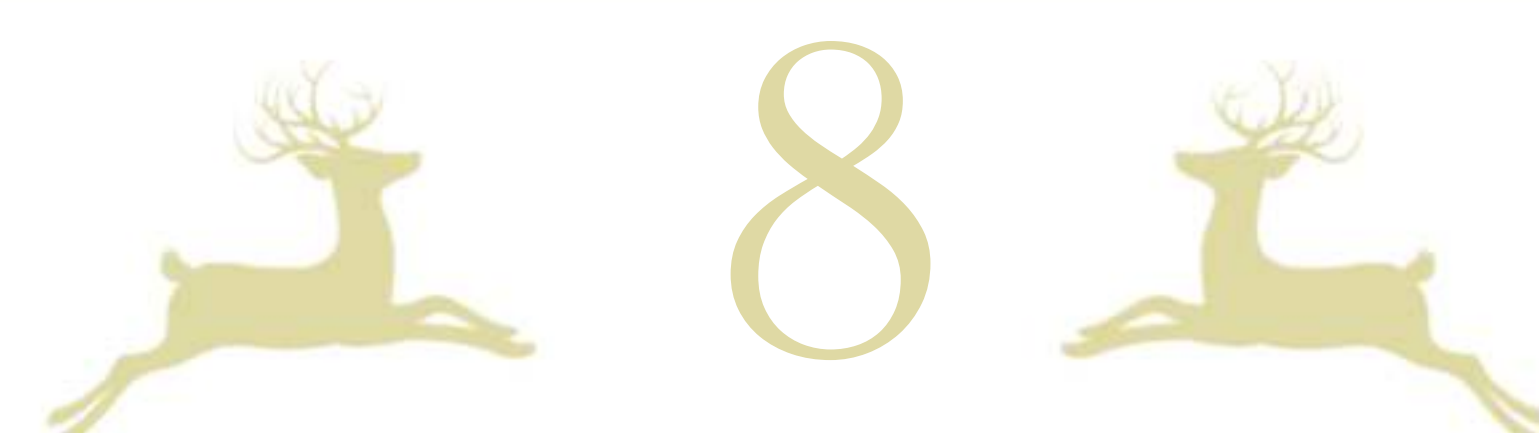

I float in the air, but on the ground
I'm hard to lift. I pile up in cold weather, if you catch my drift.
What am I?

I tower above all and my color is green. Despite my prickly reputation, all the ornaments hang around me. What am I?

When you see me come out you know holiday fun is in store. Come to my house and I'll meet you at the door. What am I?

I'm known for hating Christmas the most, but had a change of heart when I saw three ghosts.
Who am I?

I have neither feet, nor wheels, nor wings, but can travel many miles.
I may bring money, a gift card, or simply a smile. What am I?

I never crumble when I come off the pan. One tough cookie is what I am. Who am I?
