

I may be small, but I think you'll find, I bring the words "home sweet home" to mind. What am I?

It's such a simple Christmas carol that anyone can sing to it. To most people's ears, it has a nice ring to it. What is it?

I'm fit for a foot, but on Christmas Eve, you'll find me present for presents. What am I?

My appearance is soft, white, and thick. I'm as close as can be to old St. Nick. What am I?

I'm eaten at Christmastime, but not in a dish. Can you solve this mystery that comes with a twist? What am I?

I may be made of wood or cake, burnt over a fire or baked. You can even watch me on TV at Christmastime, for goodness sake! What am I?

I'm a very hard worker, if I do say so myself. I might be at the North Pole or up on a shelf. What am I?

There's nothing like me after a chilly sleigh ride. I'm a holiday tradition that makes you feel warm inside. What am I?

I work on Christmas Eve until my job is done, and despite my name, I fly - not run. Who am I?

I may not have any teeth in sight, but stay out in the cold and I'm bound to bite. What am I?

ANSWERS

1. A gingerbread house.
2. Jingle Bells.
3. A stocking.
4. Santa's beard.
5. A candy cane.
6. A yule log.
7. An elf.
8. Hot chocolate/hot cocoa.
9. Dasher.
10. Frost.